

Do you want to learn more about Human Trafficking? Join us for Parent Information Night!

This in person event , sponsored by TEEG and USI, is for parents to learn more about Human Trafficking and what steps to take to help protect your youth. There will also be a guest speaker to talk about internet safety. The goal is to learn how to best equip youth with the tools to keep them safe in our community and online.

When: Thursday February 22nd,
5:30-7:30pm

Where: United Services,
303 Putnam Road.,
Wauregan, CT 06387

Presented by: Jill Bourbeau & Rebecca Teczar,
Love146 Certified Trainers
Lori Bergstrom, Prevention Services Manager
Trooper James White, CT State Police

There will be opportunity to sign your youth up for a learning series that will enhance their knowledge and teach them how to protect themselves

To register, please reach out to Rebecca at:
(860)412-8663 or rteczar@usmhs.org

