Share Your Story

Would you like to inspire hope in someone else?

We invite clients, families, peer specialists, staff, veterans, caregivers, and community members to share stories of resilience, recovery, compassion, and personal growth. Your story does not have to be extraordinary—it simply has to be authentic.

To submit your story, please include:

Your name (or tell us if you would like to remain anonymous):

A recent photo of yourself (optional but encouraged).

Your connection to United Services, if applicable:

Your story (approximately 300–1,000 words):
What challenges did you face? What helped you move forward? Who or what inspired you? What message of hope would you like others to hear?

Is there someone who made a difference in your life that you would like to recognize?

May we edit your story for length and clarity while preserving your voice?
